

1. I must accept these consequences for my actions,
When all I did was what the world told me I should do.
And do anything for my dreams, if only I knew.
The cost of my dreams AKA you, would be you.
I'm dead now!

The nightmare, Is slowly taking over,
All that's happened, It is enabling him
To take exactly what he wants, Until he gets what he desires, We'll be at his whim.

My inner demon, he is screamin' at me, 'Take her now!
This is your only chance, won't get another, don't let me down!
Don't fucking whine, the deed is done you'll be just fine.
So you want true romance? Throw the dice, take a chance.'

2. Why won't you let me in? (Just let me in!)
We'll masquerade this awkward phase that we're stuck in!
If you accept me and forever be by my side,
Remember what I said? Every day's a new sunrise.
So let's just act pretend like this never happened,
I'm your arcane guardian, Just let me in.

You know our love is caught in your eyes, And those hazel eyes, They terrorize, they terrorize!

My inner demon ...

Don't let me down, If I can't have you, I will never be found.
It's sure to kill me if you leave me, So I'll leave you gagged and bound.
I won't reside, never abide, I won't live my life caught in a lie.

3. Baby, don't scream, Don't scream, you are not alone!

His arms are not your new home, Now just close your eyes, you will never say goodbye!

Baby don't scream, You know I did this all for you and me!

Tell me why!, Don't fucking scream, you know I did this all just for me!

| You know our love is caught in your eyes, And those hazel eyes, They terrorize, they terrorize!

| Don't let me down, ...

| There's no escape, from this place!

| (But somehow you unlocked all the chains.

| Paralyzed in authentic fear, Cause I'm insane, and I'm deranged.

| You mustn't share twisted affairs with all your peers,

| So I'll push you down the stairs, And lock you down there in the dark for years!)

4. This cannot be, it must be a dream!, I can't bare this harsh reality, She's my only destiny

We must create, our own fate, I took her life, now it's too late.

(This Darkness Has overcome your common sense

Be honest, Impulsive actions made a mess

This darkness, Like a fire burning red

So vicious, A heartless monster not a man)

| I watched their lust, it sparked alive

| And it tore me up inside

| I will admit I'm terrified,

| Let jealousy serve as my guide

| I can't reside, I can't abide

| Can't live my life caught in this lie

| So I must die, goodbye goodnight!
