1. Late one night before the tavern keeper shut his door
 A wobbly gentleman came in, his footing was unsure
 Mustachioed and handsome and his clothing touched the floor
 He was no man at all — he was three kobolds in a trenchcoat

G Em C D
 One's on the bottom, strong as he Two's in the middle, carrying three
 G Em C D
 Three's pretending not to be Three kobolds in a trenchcoat

2. One day when a maiden was out on her nightly stroll
 She got lost in the forest and was set on by a troll
 When in there stepped a gentleman, mustachioed and tall
 He was no help at all — 'cause he's three kobolds in a trenchcoat

(×2) One's on the bottom...

3. Once there was a king who was a scourge upon his land
 The citizens all wished him dead, his rule they couldn't stand
 One day he just fell flat on the pavement by no hand
 He happened to have died next to three kobolds in a trenchcoat

(×2) One's on the bottom...

G Em
 And if you're wondering how I sing three-part harmony
 C D
 When I am just one man without another to be seen
 G Em
 I'm sure the most observant of you already have seen
 C D
 That I am not one — I am three kobolds in a trenchcoat
